Niyodo River

This river's crystal clear waters has earned it the highest water quality in Japan many times over. It is a popular spot for activities like canoeing, SUP, and cycling, and its cobalt color is known as "Niyodo Blue."

Aso Chinkabashi
(Submersible Bridge)

The model for the low-water bridge that Suzu passes on her way to school. This spot features a contrast of the surrounding mountains and Kamaida village on the shore, and it attracts fishermen in the summer.

Yasui Gorge

The model for where scenes of reminiscence took place. A Niyodo Blue locale, known for its beautiful waterfalls and autumn leaves.

Fureaino-sato Yanagino

The model for the restaurant where Suzu ate side dishes and rice. The restaurant offers meals using locally sourced ingredients and pickled vegetables. Closed on Tuesdays and Fridays. Meal numbers are limited and reservations are not accepted.

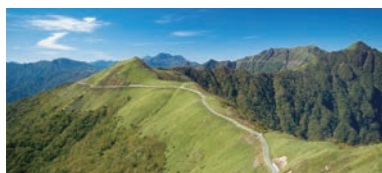

Nozu Elementary School

The model for the community activity center at the closed down school. Nozu Elementary is currently open. Note: Please do not enter the premises, as the school is not open to the public.

UFO Line

A scenic driving route with a breathtaking view, reaching altitudes of 1,300 to 1,700 meters. Mount Ishizuchi, the highest mountain in western Japan, can be seen in the background.

Nikobuchi

Climbing the ranks as a top spot to visit, this Niyodo Blue plunge pool boasts crystal clear waters. Note: This is a sacred place for locals, so please respect the area.

Please note that this part of the road is narrow. There may be spots where it will be difficult to pass by oncoming traffic.

Detour

Nishi-no-tani Dai-ni bus stop

The model of the bus stop that Suzu uses to get to school. It is located in front of Nagoya Chinkabashi (Submersible Bridge).

Hakawa Park

The model for the wide riverbank and bridge that appear in important scenes. This spot allows easy access to Niyodo River, and can get crowded with tourists for BBQs and river activities.

JR Ino Station

The model for important spots such as the ticket gates and the intersection in front of the station. It is here where Suzu boarded the 19:15 Ashizuri 16 express train.
